

Masters Cup Poultry Show Rules

All entries and every exhibitor are subject to the following rules

1. The Masters Cup Poultry Show is open to all poultry exhibitors, no membership is required.
2. The Masters Cup Poultry Show is a member of the APA and ABA. We recognize all breeds of chickens, turkeys, waterfowl and guineas.
3. Cocks and Hens are 1 year and older. Cockerels and pullets are under 1 year of age at the time of the show.
4. Bird Displays will be either a Traditional or Exhibitor display.
 - a. Traditional display is cock, hen cockerel, pullet and at least three additional birds of same breed and variety shown by one exhibitor.
 - b. Exhibitor display is cock, hen, cockerel, pullet and at least three additional birds simply from the exhibitors entry. Exhibitor display birds do not need to be same breed and variety.
 - c. Note: Only Bantam displays will be calculated for show reports.
5. Entry forms must be filled out completely.
 - a. You must specify if a bird is a bantam or large fowl, variety, breed and where applicable single comb or rosecomb and bearded or non-bearded.
 - b. Birds not specified as bantams or large fowl will be entered as large fowl and will not be moved.
6. All entries must have testing reports and check or money order enclosed and payable to Masters Cup Poultry Show.
7. All birds must meet IA state pullorum testing regulations.
 - a. All entries must be accompanied with a negative pullorum/typhoid test certificate administered within 90 days of show. A copy of Testing Reports must be mailed in with your Entry Form.
 - b. Any bird showing signs of disease will not be allowed in the show room.
8. All birds must be leg banded before being placed in their assigned cage.
 - a. Any person handling any birds or gathering eggs other than their owner will be disqualified as an exhibitor and any premiums won will be forfeited back to the club.
 - b. All exhibitors must feed and water their own birds. Feed will be provided.
9. All show boxes with names on them must be covered up completely or taken out of the building.
10. If you take pictures of birds, please ask permission of the owner and the show management, as we have had people coming in and taking pictures of our birds for their catalogs and websites for their own profit.
